

all my mother & polished with her blind eyes. But, then there are few with such an indomitable spirit as hers.

Some of my verses that my niece typed for me years ago needs retyping as I can now see where <sup>some</sup> it can be improved - many magazines will not even attempt reading long hand, my niece is too busy now, I wouldnt ask her. You can see the old Corona looks like gold to me.

Last year Eugene gave me a small heating pad for Christmas, it has been a great comfort. He said then maybe he could get me a Rasket this fall but the new furnace became a necessity and we have put the blanket idea away for a year or two. They would be the cause of comfort I should think.

My little granddaughter, Judith, spent last Saturday with me. She was happy as a lark all day long! She dusted "everywhere I can see granddud" and helped make a peach poundcake - then wanted to know if I knew how to make a "Shoo-fly pie"! She has an exceptionally eager mind, learns quickly. My mother would have adored her.

We are hoping so much that Gov. Dewey will be elected and believe he will. I am anxious about the Senatorial election in Minnesota - Mayor Humphries would be a thorn in the flesh. I could more easily follow the Dixiecrats.

I sent a little note to your sweet wife - many times I ask the Greatest Physician to care for her.

All the family are glad when we hear from you and send their love with mine. Kathryn
