

planned. But Maria wrote me a lot about it - but with Blanche would send as a paper from Lucca.

I hope no flowers against their white costumes must have been beautiful.

But this is getting too long for you to read - but tell me about little Sally Stingli - where you write.

With a great deal of love for you both, from us, and all the others who love you up here.

Affectionately

Lucy

If you don't write soon I'll have to call you by phone - and that costs money - No killing frost as yet.