

" V I L L A G E   C H U R C H "

An Oil Painting by JAMES KING BONNAR

James King Bonnar likes best to depict the rural scenes in America and his canvasses all convey a deep rich love for the quiet restful life of the country. He studied art with the renowned Joseph DeCamp and other well known instructors. Many of his paintings and murals are in private collections and in public buildings. Exhibitions of his work have been shown in most of the important cities throughout the United States.