

and there will be no
next summer for either.
Since life holds so little for them of anything which makes it desirable that we should not wish to hold them here, but we do. When they go
our hand will seem
so idle.

Give my love to your family. May God bless you all.
Jean

Aug 31 1924