

and find that she and her husband will be out to look over the place Friday.

I think I am extremely fortunate in having such fine children and grandchildren.

Love to you all,