Mrs. M. S. Maloney
The Ambassador
Tulsa, Oklahoma

Dear Mrs. Maloney:

I appreciate very much your recent letter because I know that you, too, have gone through the loss of loved ones. I know that your sympathy is sincere and appreciate it.

It is true that we had had a long and happy life together, but the parting seemed too soon. Yesterday was the 54th anniversary of our wedding.

Our children have been splendid and have done everything they could to help me. Blanche comes up from Tulsa this evening and we now plan for Dorothea, Blanche, and I to go to Dorothea's home in Wymore, Nebraska, for a few days visit. We shall probably leave tomorrow morning.

I know that Blanche and Wayne love you very much and want to do everything possible to add to your health and happiness. Good children are jewels beyond price.

With best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours

W. C. Simons
