Dear Friends:

Thank you so much for your good letter of November 1. All you said about Gertrude was true. Yesterday was the 54th anniversary of our marriage.

I realize that nearly 54 years is a longer span of life than many have or will have together, but with her father living to be 89 years old and her mother 95, we should have had many more years together.

I need your prayers and your support.

Cordially yours
