

and occupied one of your cabins. You may remember that I either went up to bring them back, or was there for a little bit and I can remember how much you looked like Della and how at home you were in the water. Later our children and Gertrude knew you while you were in Evanston, although, I do not recall having seen you there.

I am glad that you were able to be here at the funeral where you could realize the wonderful friendship that people had for Gertrude.

The last I knew of Mr. Nicholas, he was president of the Independent Oil Producers Organization.

Thanking you again for your good letter, I remain

Sincerely, your friend
