

The Corresponding Secretary shall attend to all correspondence of the Association.

The Financial Secretary shall receive all money due to and collected by the Association, and shall pay the same to the Treasurer, and the revolving fund treasurer; shall have power to issue warrants for all bills approved by the Board of Directors, or Committee appointed by it; shall make a report at each meeting of the Board of Directors, and a yearly report at the annual meeting of the Association.

The Treasurer shall have charge of all moneys belonging to the Association, except the revolving fund, and shall distribute the same upon warrants drawn by the Financial Secretary.

The Secretary-Treasurer of the Revolving Fund shall have charge of all moneys belonging to said Fund, and with the other members of the revolving fund committee, shall act as loan agent for the Association, distributing loans upon the order of the President of the Association.

The Board of Directors shall consist of the officers of the Association, who shall be the officers of the Board of Directors, and four additional members who shall be chosen for a term of four years.

The Board of Directors shall have the management and control of the business of the Association, and shall hold their meetings semi-annually or oftener if called by the President, the time and place of meeting to be designated by the President.

The Board of Directors shall have power to appoint all employes of the Association, fix their compensation, prescribe their duties, and require bond of any or all employes, premium of said bond to be paid by the Association.

The Board of Directors shall confirm committees appointed by the President, fill all vacancies not otherwise provided for, and hold in trust for the Association all property belonging thereto.

The Board of Directors shall appoint an auditing committee to audit the books of the Association biennially on election years or may have them audited by a certified accountant.

Seven members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. No member of the Board of Directors shall receive any compensation for his service to the Association as a member of the Board or as an Officer, unless authorized by a two-thirds vote of the entire board; provided that notice of the matter to be considered shall be given to the members of the Board of Directors previous to the time of meeting.

Article 3. MEETINGS — A regular meeting of this Association shall be held once a year at such time and place as may be decided upon by the Board of Directors. Twenty-one members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Article 4. ELECTIONS — Officers of this Association and members of the Board of Directors whose terms expire shall be elected at the Annual Meeting. Officers shall be