

I just could not do it this year.

Marilyn is getting along fine but is taking things very easy & finally did her Christmas shopping Friday night & today. Bob is taking his vacation and is here most of the time - They are very happy.

If you change your mind & decide the South is the place for you - write us down any time during the Christmas week. Owen & Marie go back Monday & Carl & E. go to Wichita. So they'll all be gone the first of next week -

Love you loads & thanks again for your generous & most welcome gifts & plans.
