

and humid it is cloudy and is trying to rain although it hasn't succeeded. He needs rain so much, our garden and fruit won't amount to much this year.

Hillard and Betty have moved out of the Project, a larger house, it is still in the city but out farther - much better for the children.

I am so happy for you that you have these congenial young people for company and to look after the house.

After this summer will they be able to continue with you? Are they teachers at the University or new graduates?

^{She M.A.} ^{He graduate student} ~~Which~~ one of your daughters is the oldest? I believe it to be Blanche and that she is a few years younger than I. Does she live in Lawrence? I wish you would tell me more about her.

Rec'd a good letter from Calla Jolley Gregg yesterday. She seems to love me and be really interested in my doings. How different she and Lillian. My darling mother was a composite of the two: The love, sweetness and understanding of Lillian, the alert mind, loyalty and fighting spirit of Calla. I am so proud of my mother's people they had something it seems America is losing.

This recently passed housing bill makes me writhe. The contractors for whom Eugene works and many of the workers are fearful of what it will do to them and/or their pocket-book. Senator Laft disappointed me in letting it slip through the Senate without amendments.

I did know Calla Gregg had a sister, but thought she lived in California? It probably is her daughter, ^{that I lived there} she has two daughters.

Eugene's morning overtime has been cut by a half hour. He doesn't have to be to work until 7:30 now. I am so glad. He still gets up 5:30 AM. and works around the yard and garden. I wish we could start a greenhouse business on a small
