every chance he has - it is nearly all cement blocks and cement, floor posts and enclosure - lumber is impossible the kind we wanted, but Eugene does nice smooth work and it looks good.

Your sister Grace wrote me a short letter informing me that she was going to Minneapolis with Ward Lewis' wife to look over Lillian's personal things. I was so happy about that. Lillian used to be sad when she mentioned little things she and Jean had treasured and wondered what would become of them. And knowing how she loved Grace I am sure Lillian knows and is happy about it. Grace wrote that she would keep me in mind in looking over these things, especially in regard to photographs.
