

When she went home she stopped at New Orleans & bought her maternity clothes wholesale from a friend who had a shop there, she is well equipped. She has gained weight all ready but does not look pregnant - just round - over weighs 150 lbs. Marie has good taste & has used her own things to make a good equipped house look attractive.
They have so little compared to the other children, but they are happy & ask for nothing & are getting along fine.
