

Everything went along smoothly - no feelings hurt, no words or tears. I should have felt very badly if there had been any discussion and there was none.

We left the envelope with the disposition of things in the big chest, either top or second drawer. Dolly may want to look it over too -

I hope Janet got home safely and do hope she had company and help in driving - It was probably worse going West.

I think you are most fortunate in having the Kings with you. They are such a fine type couple, intelligent, refined & understanding. Made us feel most welcome and as tho we had made new friends. In sure they'll be comfort and company for you -
Do hope Brian feels O.K.
