

June 14, 1949.

Mrs. O. W. Maloney

as the weather settles. I think we have accomplished what we had hoped in largely decimating the second growth of dandelions.

I had a nice letter just the other day from Marilyn. She, too, is a mighty sweet girl, and I love her very much.

Last night there was a gathering in the dining room at the hotel in tribute to Doctor H. L. Chambers who was 80 years old on the 12th. There were, probably, between 80 and 90 present and it was a very fine affair. Those attending paid $2.25 to cover a good meal and the expense of a Bible as a gift to Doctor Chambers and flowers for his wife. Doctor Mott presided and I paid tribute to Doctor Chambers, and then Doctor Chambers responded. It was a very interesting affair.

My calendar indicates that your wedding anniversary will be tomorrow. If my figures are correct, it will be your 31st, and here's hoping both of you will be in good health and strength when the 50th anniversary comes around.

Give my love to Pat.

Lots of Love,
