Dear Blanche:

I was very glad to receive your card post marked June 9, and I am sorry that Marie has not been so well. I hope it is nothing serious. I think they are a might fine couple and I hope that good fortune will smile upon them.

I haven't seen Eileen for a few days but have been very busy. Janet and Mary Beth were in and out. Mary Beth registered yesterday and will return to Minneapolis by train tonight simply to spend the week end and will be back to school for the summer session.

I know that Pat has handled himself wonderfully, but I fear that he will have to forego golf until his skin becomes more thoroughly healed.

I saw Franz Wiedemann the other day, and I think he rather doubts that he will go to Colorado as the doctors do not believe the high altitude to be good for his heart.

I have been getting letters practically every day from Dolph and Marie since they left on Tuesday, May 31. The last letter came from the Ambassador Hotel at Los Angeles, but we are addressing them today at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco.

It was just one year ago this morning that Gertrude and I left our home, spending the night at Wymore. I miss her very much all of the time.

Otis King leaves tomorrow together with five others, including students and a professor, for field work in Wyoming. Margaret and I will probably go to Minnesota shortly after Dolph's return on Thursday, June 23. Margaret's 15 year old sister is visiting her now.
