

ON BOARD
S. S. ALCOA CAVALIER

Friday morning I went to Ketchikan for breakfast and ran into a broadcast. Sat. I had breakfast at Sardis' hotel and we enjoyed it for a half hour. We sailed shortly after 11 A.M. and sailed down the river all day. I saw the Swamp country. It was so smooth that we scarcely felt any motion until today. The flying fish have been sailing by & Pat saw a school of porpoises.

I shall miss your good letters & do wish you could be with us. The passengers are all on the elderly side. The only young person under 35 is the ship's doctor & most of them are 50 and up & way too many Jews. In fact, we haven't made much attempt to meet any one because they are
