Dearest Dad -

It's been an old "so 'n so" for not writing more often. Your good letter came yesterday afternoon and I appreciate so much your thoughtfulness in writing about the birth certificate and all you have done in regard to it. However, it has not been sent to me so I guess they need more jacking up -

Your letter was the first indication that I had of Dorothy's indisposition. I hope he has conquered it by now. I know he hadn't been to the office a lot but didn't we be sure he was writing at home. You are all very precious to me and I don't want anyone to be sick. Same re Ford & you throwing it that cold in a canary.

I was vaccinated a week ago Tuesday and it has taken "and how!" - I have a very sore, inflamed arm - but the 9th day started this afternoon and they say it then starts to subside. I hope so. I also am wearing my new bridge work and find they are annoying altho my mouth
