Dear Blanche:

I am going to send you a carbon copy of a letter I have just written to Janet as I want you to know the same thing that it contains.

It will not be long now until Marilyn will be married. I had a fine dinner a few days ago with Eileen and Carl. The food was excellent and well served. Eileen is a darling.

Sickness delayed my writing to Grace in regard to her birthday, which was last Tuesday, but I have written her today.

We are all delighted that Dolph has returned safely from his wonderful trip around the world. He has certainly had a most unusual opportunity to see what is going on in this old world.

Give my love to Pat and Marilyn.

Lovingly, your father
