Dear Blanche:

I hope you had no bad luck in making your trip to the wedding. I may be a piker in not having forced myself to go, but I have reached the stage when I think it behooves me to be careful.

Mary Jule gave me a present to take with me, and I had it mailed from our office today to Owen's Odessa address.

I had a nice dinner with Mary Jule and her lovely daughters one evening recently.

I find that Margaret King, who is staying with me, has a sister, Lucille, who is married to Harold Stadt, who is working for the Dowell Chemical Company in Tulsa. If she is as nice as Mrs. King, she would be worth looking up.

I am sending you herewith a copy of a letter I have just written to Janet as it contains considerable news.

Everything seems to be running smoothly at the office, and everyone has been very nice to me.

With lots of love to you and the family, I remain

Your loving father,
