

It is wonderful how Pat has been able to carry on and I hope and pray he may be rewarded for his courage by enjoying perfect health.

It is turning quite cold today but may not fret on account of clouds and wind. I hope not for we have six trees on our bush and one or two hubs on other we bushes. and many other flowers in bloom. I know this will be more warm weather but do not like a killing frost just yet.

We are hoping to go to Minneapolis and out to Maple Plain - on Lake Sota some day this week. Ben is pretty well but Oh so busy - gets up at 7 A.M. or earlier every morning - and keeps going like a crazy man - no one can stop him. but I do take good care of him and he returns about ten or earlier - and
