such very nice letters and I would write her more often if I had the time. She is exactly 21 years younger than our Etoile.
You are very dear to me and I love your good letters as does Dan- but oh how I do miss the lovely letters that Eleanor used to write me and I know how much her daughter must miss them. She was always so faithful to her family.
I think you made her life a most happy one and it is not often one can look back on fifty four years of such pleasant memories I think Dan and I are enjoying these last years together as much as any since we were married.
Our new addition is called "Edgewood Road" It has three "Streets" and "Courts" called "Gregory Ave." namely "Edgewood Court." "Gregory Ave." and the longest one is called "Birchridge Drive" beautiful and is called "Birchridge Drive" oak. She will write you— Vera Singh has improved her handwriting wonderfully in the last year— I am so glad
