Minneapolis, Kansas

My dear Janet:

Feeling rather lonely Sunday afternoon, I called up the Kappa house to invite Mary Beth to take a ride, and then learned that she was spending the week end with you.

Mike told the folks Sunday afternoon that he was coming over in the evening for a bath, but he did not do so, but I have no doubt he is okay.

Perhaps you saw Dolph, Jr's, picture in the recent issue of the Kansas City Times, but I shall enclose one in the event you did not. I am also sending a clipping from the Kansas City Times regarding John's playing at Shawnee Mission.

I don't know what name has been decided on yet for Eileen's baby, but he is a little darling, and a strikingly beautiful baby, having clean cut features like your own Mary Beth. It is rather strange that with his father having real light hair and Eileen having light brown, that the little chaps hair is very dark brown or black.

Come and see me whenever you can.

Lovingly,
