

April 15, 1949

Mrs. L. A. McNalley
Minneapolis,
Kansas

Dear Janet:

This is Friday before Easter, and I am thinking of you. I think that I have a more correct measure of your ability and mentality than you have for yourself. I think that you could accomplish any good thing which you purposed to do.

I love you very much and hope that your Easter will be a very happy one.

Lovingly,