

April 7, 1949

Mrs. L. A. McNalley

spend some time in field work in Wyoming before joining us at the lake.

Charles Hoinville and Mary came in this morning and came in for a chat at the office. Dolph, Marie, and I have been invited down to the Stoughs this evening. Little Sally is certainly a darling baby--healthy, happy, and handsome--a combination of the three H's.

Thank you a lot for the necktie.

Love to you and yours,