

Mrs. L. A. McNalley

March 7, 1949

Page 2

better. I find I am taking off a little weight, possibly five pounds in the last several months.

Everything seems to be moving along smoothly at home, and I am finding the Kings as pleasant as one could hope for. I occasionally get to talk to Mary Beth, but not as often as I should like.

I am reading Human Destiny and finding it quite interesting.

Lots of love to you and yours,