Dear Dad.

I was very glad to get your letter and am sorry you were so worried about me. I'm very glad there was no one with me as if there had been they would no doubt have been hurt as the car hit the post on the right side - and mashed the door opposite the driver - It was really a very lucky accident - a car passed me on a hill six miles east of St. George - when I turned back I hit an icy spot and it went out of control on the highway - plunged over the embankment on the south and finally stopped after hitting a cement post - miraculously left on the old highway. By some miracle the car did not roll over and after having a wrecker go for it from Manhattan - I found it was in condition to be driven home so I came on. The bad road was between Lawrence & Topeka - This was an icy spot where I had thought
