Dear Hugh:

I take pleasure in sending you another dividend check and I hope that I will be here to write them and you to receive them for many years to come.

Are you keeping house? If so, I hope you have good health. I have been quite fortunate in having a student and his wife with me for the past year. He will soon get his degree and then I shall be forced to make a change.

With very best wishes to you for the year to come, I remain

As ever, your friend
