Dear Mr. Simons,

Just a wee note to let you know that I'm hoping you are all well now. I noticed in the Journal. Board the note about your illness.

I think of you many times and of your dear
one — what happy
times you afforded us
and all your friends.
It is always with interest that I note bits of news of your family — perhaps the latest, the arrival of Eileen's little one. It just doesn't seem possible!
Life moves so rapidly and
