

August 31

Mr. Norman A. Norman

seems queer to think of Jack as being 71 years old. Should he come to Kansas, I would be glad to see him.

I am happy that you have a son, and I imagine that I would find him just as cute and dear as you describe him. I am very fond of children. According to your letter, it will be but a short time until you have another addition to your family.

Wishing you and your wife the perfect fulfillment of your hopes, I remain

Sincerely yours

W. C. Simons
