

Where to stop while attending the Apostle Islands Indian Pageant at Bayfield, Wis.
On highway 13, around Chequamegon Bay. The Top of Wisconsin.

AUGUST 2 to 16th, 1925

HOTELS--Pageant Inn, Amer. plan, $3 day, $15 a week.
Bracken House " " 3.50 " 18 " "

Rooms to be rented in private homes, listed at Pageant Office, prices averaging $1 a person per night (with bath privileges.)

FREE Camping along more than three miles of Chequamegon Bay shoreline---or in the pine woods on the way to pageant park.

Private campsites with bath privileges, and tented city with equipped tents which may be rented as low as $1 a night.

And you'll find Free Parking on Pageant Grounds. the latch string is out for a life time at my cottage on the lake shore.