

All Roads Lead to the Pageant Grounds

Whether you come by water, rail, or automobile the way is never crowded. Come over the Great Lakes by water; the Northern Pacific, the Northwestern Line and the Soo Line by rail; Wisconsin State Highways 10, 13, 24, 35, 112 and Minnesota Highway No. 1, by automobile.

Come to Bayfield, Wisconsin. From there the way is clearly marked to the pageant grounds about five miles distant.

Accommodations

Large tourist camps at Ashland, Washburn, Bayfield, Superior, and Duluth, and on the pageant grounds. Running water piped from mineral springs. Pavilions and open hearth grates arranged for public use. Fire wood furnished free. All camps under police protection. Wonderful natural camp sites anywhere along the lake shore in virgin forests.

Hotels at Ashland

Knight-Northern-Menard, and Seventh Avenue.

Hotels at Bayfield

Pageant Inn—Bracken.

□ = □ □ = □ □ = □
Write Apostle Islands Indian Pageant Corp., Bayfield, Wis.
for details.

Hotels at Superior

New Androy—The Superior.

Hotels at Duluth

The Duluth—Spalding — Holland — St. Louis
Lenox—McKay.

For An Extended Vacation

If you come from the south, east or west, travel through the scenic wooded sections of Minnesota and Wisconsin, through the beautiful Land O' Lakes region, and on up to the Indian Pageant, at the Top O' Wisconsin. Then, leaving the Pageant grounds, a 2½ hour drive will take you to the Minnesota Arrowhead Country. A vacation land supreme; where you may revel in cool summer days in the last of our great natural forests. Where you will find fish and game in abundance. Where you may tour concrete highways through a virgin wilderness, or camp at modern summer resorts and tourist playgrounds.

For information concerning this country see the following booths at the pageant ground: Wisconsin Land O' Lakes Assn., Minnesota Arrowhead Assn., Minnesota 10,000 Lakes Assn. The 20,000 Lakes of Wisconsin and Minnesota will be listed at the pageant grounds showing resorts and details.

Pageant Information

The production officials of the Apostle Islands Indian Pageant Corporation are:

Victor Fay, General Manager.
Otto A. Reetz, Pageant Director.
Theodore Steinmetz, Musical Director.
Vivian Nelson, Director of Ballet.
V. B. Shipman, Director of Publicity.

Admission: Adults $1.10 Children $.50

□ = □ □ = □ □ = □
Write Apostle Islands Indian Pageant Corp., Bayfield, Wis.
for details.

APOSTLE ISLANDS

INDIAN PAGEANT

America's Super Indian Classic

BAYFIELD WIS
2 AUGUST 16
INCLUSIVE

A $100,000.00

TOURIST ATTRACTION

(No Carnival Concessions Allowed)

Write Apostle Islands Indian Pageant Corp., Bayfield, Wis.
for details.