

March 24, 1949

Mrs. Deane Malott
Lilac Lane
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Mrs. Malott:

I wish to apologize for my hasty departure last night from your charming dinner.

My daughter, Dorothea, "Mrs. Johnson", is here from Nebraska and wished me to call for her so she could hear Miss Thompson. I, therefore, rushed away and got back in time to hear the unusually fine introduction to the speaker given by the Chancellor.

Sincerely yours

W. C. Simons

WCS:md