

week so she probably mentioned some of the things I have. I am really a changed man, Grandad, I have been to church each Sunday since November, and truthfully can say I feel much better for it. I am not considering going into the Catholic church, but feel that the two of us should go together.
I also have attempted to be as big a help to Maie as possible, following your advice, and hope to improve as time goes by.

Remember me to all in Lawrence, and remember we think of you often.
We are anxious to see you next month, and until then,

My love,

Queen
