

came down stairs and looked out of the window and that grateful gentleman the sun arose and give me a polite bow he was dressed in yellow and his clothing was so dazzling bright that it would shut your eyes to look at it I have not been very well to day I had a very severe headache which made me very unhappy I feel somewhat relieved, I will now depress a little. As I am away from home and I will write a little on this subject home the sweet palace is always soothing the pains of every person there we have kind parents and brothers and sisters who is always comforting us how sweet to see all at home all neatly seated around a fire side all enjoying the comfort that home affords little girls and boys ought we not to be satisfied in the position god has placed us.

I think we ought but I fear there are those that dislike their home sometimes but I love my home and those that inhabit it I have not had time to journalize before this evening because I was so busy in my other studies I am very much interested in my studies as usual as I told you in my last journal My health was not good but I have somewhat recovered this morning the sun had not presented itself when I arose but seemed as though it had fallen behind the clouds but it soon came forth as bright
