

January 23, 1949.

Dear Mr. Simone

How are you?

We are fine. Thank you very much for the nice Christmas present it is a very nice snow suit: the jacket is grey trimmed with blue and the snow pants are blue. The hood is nice and warm: it keeps me very warm. I'm staying with aunt mamie during week ends. I'm piling wood for her to earn a little money on the side. We baked today and were going to have chicken for dinner. We stayed out late last night it was about 3: when we came home. I'm getting better marks in school all the time. I only