

health would allow and was active until a few weeks before the end at 74. His life was useful and he enjoyed doing things which meant something for himself and others. All I can do is to go on a few more years as bravely as I can. It is all anyone can do in such circumstances, as I am sure you realize.

Thanking you for your kind letter I am yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Simons:-

Thank you for telling me you enjoyed knowing my husband. He had many friends and their letters have brought to my mind memories of happy days we shared with them. That trip to the west coast is one of those well-remembered events. We thought Dorothea about the nicest little girl we ever saw - quite envied you having her. And thro the years she has remembered us with cards at Christmas, to our great joy, for it was
