

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hoinville

January 11, 1949

Dolph leaves by train tonight to join the group of Navy men who will leave Washington on the 14th for a six weeks trip around the world. It will be an experience which does not come to one in a million. We hate to be without him for six weeks and trust that he will have a safe and enjoyable trip.

Lovingly, your brother