

I appreciate more than ever now the pictures you took of us in our home. I remember you so well--Jack as the capable, driving, industrialist and, also, for his connection with his religious group, and I remember his wife as a perfect example of the famous Georgia Peach.

With very best wishes, I remain

Cordially yours