

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Maloney
Brown Palace Hotel
Denver 2, Colorado

Thurs. Aug 24th

Dear W.C.

It almost seems impossible that I'm in any place but in bed in Tulsa. However, here I am and enjoying the short visit immensely. We attended the wedding of Ruth Foster Slagle's daughter Dorothy Ann last night and met most of Denver's finest people at the reception. We even made the society page ourselves.

We are being "lunched" and "dinnered" both today + tomorrow and will fly back to Wichita early Sat. morning to spend the day with Helen + Corl and Mr. Wayne. I hope all the eating I'm doing and plan to do won't stretch my tender skin to the bursting point.

I'm feeling just fine, but wear out a little too easily for my comfort. My feet are still tender and swell somewhat when I'm on them very much. I've learned to give myself the "shots" I still have to take three times a day so as to prevent I'm entirely out from under the