

July 20.

Dear Dad - no news is good news I'm sure, but haven't had out one letter, it written July 8.

I hope you are having too much fun & resting too much to write.

Marilyn is here this week & we've been going out a little. She feels fine, but is carrying a big load in front. We go to a luncheon today & went to see yesterday.

Pat continues to improve in all ways. No more weepy skin & he feels fine. We even went out to a chicken place for dinner last night.

Quinn & Owen & families are all well.

Love you all & will write a new letter to all soon. My best to the gang. Devotedly
Blanche.
