

Mrs. O. W. Maloney, May 22, 1950

I have a letter from Dorothea saying that they are planning to leave Wymore for Brainerd on May 28, and that it is possible that Harry's sister and her husband, Mr. Dibble, may accompany them.

I think that John Simons anticipates going very soon in order to guide for a couple of weeks for a friend and former patron. Later the Mr. Dudley of Houston, Texas, a former patron of John's, wishes to have all of his time as a guide. I have just called Marie and she says that John will not be going up quite as soon as I had expected because he has been invited to attend some sort of meeting of football coaches and leaders to be held soon. John has made a very fine reputation in football, and it is quite likely that he will be in demand. If

If I recall rightly it will be some weeks yet before I can expect my third great-grandson from Marilyn and Robert. You are building up grandchildren mighty rapidly, and I sincerely hope that Pat will regain his health so that he can thoroughly enjoy them.

I think I'll put Dorothea's letter in with this, and you can return it to me.

Lots of love,
