night in order to watch the activities of birds and beasts. It must have been very cold, but I hope they did not suffer too much.

I think that this summer I should like very much to have one of my daughters with me all of the time at the lake. As Mary Beth's wedding comes on June 17th, I shall not get away until very shortly after that date. I wish that you, Janet, and Dorothea would plan the time as well as you can for the summer.

I want this to be at your convenience, and so you will have something of a rest and outing. Of course, whether you can come or not will depend upon Pat's condition, and if he is able to travel we shall be very happy to have him with us.

You are very dear to me.

Lovingly,
