Dear Janet and Mac:

I have been talking with Henry Asher, who has just received data on the new federal tax bills, and he believes the tax next year will be considerably higher than now.

I have had 914-916 appraised and the low figure is $30,000.00. Actual value may be even greater. I have the abstracts in the vault, so if you can come down you can get the papers fixed up. When one reaches my age there is always a tendency to try to consider a transfer of property as being occasioned by fear of death, but I may live for some time to come.

I have not been able to get the repairs made, but you can see to that as the rental would take care of it.

Love to all.

Lovingly,
