

Mrs. L. A. McNalley, September 12, 1950

here. I should think the big house in Minneapolis would be a little lonely with both of the children away, but it probably will not be long before Mary Beth and Charles will have a family and you will have the pleasure of having grandchildren. I should be glad to have Mac advise me as to the gift tax on this property.

Lovingly,

WCS:bjh