Dear Janet:

I dropped into Julius Marks store today and found that as of tomorrow there will be an increase in price of about 5%. So I told him to book me as of today for one setting, which as I recall is $13.50, to hold the price, and you, or Mary Beth may make the selection later. This is of the Marlborough pattern.

I shall also give her a check.

Was very glad to have you here, even for a short time, and hope you will soon come again. There is nothing particularly new to tell you.

Lots of love,
