Tuesday night

Dear Dad -

Received your letter this morning with the enclosed bonds for Mike and Maly. I think it is a very fine and generous thing to do and I know they will appreciate it very very much. I am writing them both in case you haven't told them.

Mac has been sick with a cold but is some better. He goes to bed early, gets up late and naps in the daytime - nothing in between times.

I had a card for Blanche this morning saying Pat is showing improvement. I'm so glad and do hope he can recover and be able to enjoy life again.

How did Sally Strong get? I wrote Mary Jane but told her not to write to answer as I knew how busy
