Dear Mr. Simons:

We are wishing for you a merry Christmas and remembering the happy times we had with you during the last two holiday seasons.

We are riding to Texas with friends. I was afraid the old Ford might take a cold and leave us stranded somewhere.

Let us hear about your Christmas.

Sincerely,
Otis

Dear Mr. Simons -

notice our new address. We were able to get a partly-furnished apartment right after Thanksgiving. It is much more comfortable because it contains some items we didn't have and couldn't manage for some time yet.

We are very happy here - getting pretty well acquainted with the college and town people now. Saturday night we had as dinner guests Otis's department head, Dr. Allen, and wife and son. This week is pretty well filled with getting ready for Christmas. I'm having the usual struggle to keep Otis from opening immediately all the packages we receive in the mail. He doesn't like suspense...!

Do you have a tree this year? Perhaps you'll spend Christmas day at home (in Lawrence, that is) this year. It's a safe bet you'll be among people who love you - whether at Minneapolis, Wynmore, Tulsa or Lawrence!

merry Christmas to a fine gentleman, with love.
Margaret
