

Sorry to change stationery but we "don't got no" (as the Jamaicans say down here) Washington Hotel paper here and maybe you'd like to finish the trip with us.

After a refreshing rest and sleep we ^(women) were all invited to have breakfast with a friend in Cristobal - And how delicious it was!! Fresh mangoes + cream, cereal and the most delicious rolls and coffee.
(I'll bet you'd like a cup of coffee with us, too).

We picked up the "Captain", at least Mr. Arnold did and all of us went to Sunday morning services, two of the crowd went to the Catholic Church, but the rest of us heard a wonderful talk at the Union Church. The regular pastor is now on vacation and the Rev. who spoke is connected with the Sea-Wall Mission and he was an inspiration, rather comforting in these troublous times.

Then the Captain took all of us aboard his swank passenger ship to have lunch.
The dining salon is air-conditioned, quite attractively lighted and the food they served us most delicious.
