Dear Mr. W. C.:

We are enclosing a copy of a reply to Mr. Brewington as well as his original letter. We were sorry we could locate no additional information on this man.

The Kings arrived Tuesday night and left again this morning. The Parrishes were there and Margaret gave Mrs. Parrish many of the details regarding the house and care. I understand from Otis that the Parrishes are moving in Saturday.

Grace Farris is on vacation this week. Her niece lost her little baby on Wednesday of this week. It was the niece that was in Germany and who spent a good bit of time with the Farrises. The baby was born on Tuesday. Dr. Lindemberger died suddenly this morning.

At last the skies are clear here in Kansas. Last night it turned cool and the weather man is now forecasting some fair weather. This is quite welcome, particularly to me as we have been waiting all week for it to dry up enough to excavate for our basement.

Jim Bausch was in town Tuesday and asked regarding you and Dolph.

This is all the news that Barbara and I can think of for this time.

Best regards,

Leo
